Software Rights Archive, LLC v. Google Inc. et al
Doc. 58 Att. 14

EXHIBIT L

Dockets.Justia.com

THE LAW OFFICES OF STEVEN E. SCHWARZ

The Law Offices of Steven E. Schwarz is a public interest firm located in Chicago, Illinois servicing local and national clients in a wide variety of issues including consumer protection, civil rights law, contract law, and criminal defense.

Steven Schwarz is an experienced trial attorney. As a former Navy Judge Advocate General (JAG) Corps lawyer, he has appeared in numerous military courts-martial and administrative board hearings as both prosecutor and defense counsel. He is also the recipient of the National Defense Service Medal and the Navy Achievement Medal for his outstanding work in prosecuting a military drug ring and as an assistant legal advisor to the commander of one of the Navy's key training facilities. During his military service, Lieutenant Schwarz was granted an interim secret security clearance and represented a court-martial client alleging as part of his defense a relationship with the National Security Agency (NSA).

Prior to his military service, Mr. Schwarz worked as a disaster assistance attorney for the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) during the Clinton administration and provided legal advice to Federal Coordinating Officers leading disaster response and recovery operations in seven states.

Mr. Schwarz' current practice focuses on public interest class action cases. He has represented plaintiffs in MDL-926 Breast Implant Litigation, a products liability class action suit transferred to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. He is currently representing clients in Joll v. AT&T et al., a civil action against the nation's largest telecommunications carriers alleging violations of constitutional and statutory law in connection with warrantless wiretapping and disclosure of customer records and transferred to the United States District Court for the Northern District of California as part of MDL-1791. He is also lead counsel in Walker v. SWIFT, a case in the Northern District of Illinois seeking certification of a nationwide class and alleging violations of constitutional and statutory law in connection with warrantless disclosure of customer financial records to a United States Governmental agency.

Mr. Schwarz received his bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois in 1990 and his law degree from the University of Illinois College of Law in 1993. He has been a member in good standing of the Illinois Bar since 1993. He is admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois and is a member of that court's trial bar.